

Local Legionnaire wins National Award.

Ben Blalock, the Service Officer for the American Legion Post 90 in Cape Coral, received the Lifetime Membership Award at the American Association of Police Polygraphists (AAPP) national conference in Phoenix, Arizona, on June 7, 2022.

Ben received the honor, awarded to a past AAPP president, because of his extraordinary and outstanding service to the American Association of Police Polygraphists. The award required a two-thirds majority of the Board of Directors' nomination and approval by a majority vote of the membership at an Annual Meeting.

The AAPP was established and is dedicated to bringing together International, Federal, State, Local, and Tribal Law Enforcement professionals from throughout the country and other parts of the world. The AAPP's mission is to advance the latest training and technology in the field and is built on the exchange of ideas between its members and law enforcement agencies.

Mr. Blalock is a United States Army veteran and a former interrogation and counterintelligence soldier, Special Agent, government employee and contractor in the intelligence field. He also served as a Czech, Russian and Spanish Linguist.

American Legion Post 90 in Cape Coral was founded in April 2001. The Post offers a full canteen and food service at 1401 SE 47th Street and sponsors scholarships, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops, blood drives, VA volunteers, and emergency funds programs to assist veterans in need.

For further information about the Cape Coral American Legion Post 90 or if you are interested in joining, please contact PR Officer Ted Clark at 845 527-7948, 239 540-8128, or alpost90cape@yahoo.com. You may also visit their Webpage post90swf.org for additional information.