CAPE CORAL AMERICAN LEGION POST 90

American Legion Auxiliary donates to Children's Advocacy Center of SW Florida

On August 22nd the American Legion Auxiliary of Cape Coral Unit 90 had the honor of collecting and presenting school supplies, backpacks, and monetary donations for the Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) located in Fort Myers. The supplies were valued at over $300, and the monetary donation was approximately $200. Donations were made by Auxiliary Unit 90 members, Post 90 members and caring friends.

The Director of the Ft Myers CAC, Rachael Peacock, expressed her gratitude and stated, "the CAC is excited and grateful for the donations that will be well received by the children the Center services." The president of the American Auxiliary, Nita Keeling, stated "this is a good example of the reason the American Legion Auxiliary exists – to provide service to our community."

Founded in 1981, the mission of the Children's Advocacy Center of Southwest Florida is to provide a coordinated response to child victims of abuse and neglect; and improve the lives of at-risk children and their families through prevention services.

The American Legion Auxiliary is made up of the male and female spouses, grandmothers, mothers, sisters, and direct and adopted female descendants of members of The American Legion. The Auxiliary administers dozens of volunteers programs, gives hundreds of hours to its communities and to veterans, and raises thousands of dollars to support its own programs, as well as other worthwhile charities in Cape Coral and Ft Myers. It is all accomplished with volunteers. For additional information
